It having some to the knowledge of the undersigned, beyond his expectation, that his nephew, Poon MING-WAN and YEE-TSO, the son of the latter have, through the influence of a foreigner who wrote to the Namboi District Magistrate, procured stamps to deeds for 17 lots of houses and lands, which property are portions of those that were cold away by the undersigned, and it being difficult to tell what their future intentions are, the undersigned feels compelled to lay the facts before the pub-lic viz that these lots of houses and lands were actually sold for liquidation of arrears of revenue, and that there are owners for them. In regard to the conduct of MING PAN and his son in obtaining official stamps to deeds, it must be remembered that they have not the formen deeds or any rent book; their idea was that the lots had escaped seizure by Go. vernment, and they thought that by representing the property as left to them by their anseafor, they could have obtained the deeds stamped. They did not some to think that these lots. before seizure, had been mortgaged, as witness the mortgage deeds held by the Mortgagees, and afterwards with the sanction of the Government, the undersigned sold and assigned to the Mortgagees, and received from them the balance of purchase money to pay the revenue. This attempt of MING-FAN and his son to carry out their purpose, which is certainly against the rules of the family, should not, it be is ready to receive tenders for the against the rules of the family, should not, it taining two diamonds and a ruby be-Conveyance to England of the following would seem, be intruded on the attention of tween them. A suitable reward will be given the public, but from an apprehension that they to who might privately dispose of the said lots, in whereal which case it would cause serious trouble, the Office. undersigned, therefore, ventures to caution the public against purchasing the said 17 lots of rouses and lands specified hereinbelow, as the whole circumstances in which they assumed the ownership and procured the official stamps: here been reported to the Authorities. If any one will secretly purchase the said property on account of the cheapuess of the price, undersigned will then in conjunction with the owners of the said property bring an action against the purchaser, as it has been observed before, the said property was sold under authority to satisfy payment of revenue to Govern-

HONGRONG, MAY 18TH. 1871

As is to be naturally expected, the terrible catastrophe on board the Dolores Uttarte has given rise to a great deal of discussion with reference to the subject of fitting out vessels even in Hongkong. At the same time, if it was for the coolie trade in Hongkong. Various to be accepted it must .. The cut round by the important questions are at once suggested. Are the ships which fit for " coolies " obliged to notify their intention of doing so to the facts & gether, they might decide that some Hongkong Government, and to apply for permission; and if so, under what restrictions are they placed and what steps are adopted for the suppression of irregularities and by virtue of what arrangement are they taken? Have ships in the burbour of Hong- resumed yesterday. The woman declined to kong been recognised as of one nationality give evidence, and a further adjournment was by their flag, while bearing on their stern the name of a port in another country? .These questions demand some answer at the present time; as it is imperative that Hongkong should be kept clear of the monstrous abuses which exist in the neighbouring Cology; and the coolie conventions with China and the Chinese Passengers Acts are sufficient to show the auxiety of the Home and beating the complainant, who represented Authorities that our hands should be entirely that consequent upon his father's illness be indirect, in the coolie traffic as conducted as Macao. There can we imagine be no doubt of the illegality of a vessel fitting up in Hongkong for the purpose of carrying on Police Court, who stated that when the comcoblie traffic from Macao. It is a general principle that any act which is directly or indirectly intended to evade a law is illegal do so. He made me angry, and I gave him a in itself, and can be prevented by Government interference. If, therefore, vessels are found to be making use of Hongkong-harbour for the purpose of conducting a trade which is directly prohibited by laws in force in this Colony, their action in doing so is simply illegal, and can be put down if it be discovered. Now the Dolores Ugarte, as is wellknown, fitted up in this barbour, and there is the same had been won by the barman, who also no doubt that, except the person deputed to look after this matter is unfortunately blind, something must have arrested his attention in regard to the peculiar preparations which were being made. For example, it would be impossible that such a thing as pense offended against the religious scruples of have been satisfactory to them to have save an iron grating used to place over the his employers by placing a piece of beef by the side of their water-cast. It is true it may be argued, that the carrying of coolies in the way designed is legal at Macao, and that the preparations are for a legal and not for an illegal act, and cannot, therefore, be objected to. But the matter is very similar to the cases where acts legal, in themselves are done with the view of evading the laws of another country, in respect to which Courts vised Land Regulations, under which the have gone so far, in holding them illegal, that Municipal Council is elected, provide that they will not entertain any claims in connection with them, though the claims in themselves may be legitimate.
